De wd. Gouverneur voornoemd,

J. B. GORSIRA.

Uitgegeven den 4n. Augustus 1921.

De Gouvernements-Secretaris, BOOMGAART.

THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR of the Dutch Windward
Islands, Colony of Curaçao, makes known that by the Court of Policy in the Island of St. Eustatius, on account of the fact that the pest known as Cotton Pink Boll Worm is in existance in the surrounding foreign Islands, in its meeting of the 27th. January 1921 has been enacted the following Local Ordinance.

ORDINANCE, prohibiting the importation into the island of St. Eustatius of all cotton-seed, lint cotton and seed-cotton and all packages, coverings, bags or other article or thing which has been used as a package, cover or bag for any cotton-seed, lint cotton or seed-cotton from all foreign countries and places.

Art. 1.

The importation into the island of St. Eustatius of all cotton-seed, lint cotton and seed-cotton and all packages, coverings, bags or other article or thing which has been used as package, cover or bag for any cotton-seed, lint cotton or seed-cotton from all foreign places with the exception of any direct importation from Barbados, is prohibited.

Art. 2.

The master of a vessel is held responsible for the discharge of any of the articles mentioned in art. 1 of this Ordinance.

Art. 3.

Violation of art. 1 will be punished with custody of not over three months or a fine of not more than f 100,—.

Art. 4.

This Ordinance goes into effect on the day of its publication.

And this being in the Court of Policy's opinion, a case of urgency as meant in the second part of Art. 132 of the Regulation for the Administration of the Government of the Colony of Curaçao, this Ordinance is meanwhile published pending the Governor's ratification.

St. Eustatius, 27th January 1921.

The Lieutenant-Governor,
J. VAN DER ZEE Rzn.,
Kaptn.

Afgekondigd te St. Eustatius, den 28n. Januari 1921.

De Gezaghebber der Bovenwindsche Eilanden,
J. VAN DER ZEE Rzn.,
Kaptn.

Goedgekeurd bij Gouvernements-beschikking dd. heden
Nº 804.

Willemstad, den 25n. Juli 1921.
